HOW YOUR TAX BILL IS CALCULATED

The Tulsa County Assessor determines the taxable value for all taxable property in the county as of January 1 of each year. The assessor multiplies the taxable value by the assessment rate to determine the gross assessed value of your property. The present assessment rate is 11%. The taxable value of your property multiplied by 11% equals the gross assessed value of your property. Any applicable exemptions are then subtracted from the gross assessed value. The most common exemption is the homestead exemption, but there are other exemptions that may be applicable to your property. Exemptions are subtracted from the gross assessed value to arrive at the net assessed value. The net assessed value is then multiplied by your tax rate (sometimes referred to as “millage rate”) to determine the actual tax. The tax rate applied to your property is determined by the County Excise Board, and is based upon budgets submitted by the public schools, municipalities, county, City-County Library System, and City-County Health Department. The tax rate also includes the amounts necessary to repay bonded indebtedness approved by a vote of the people. The tax rate is stated in mills, a mill being $1 per $1,000 of net assessed value. To calculate your tax, multiply the net assessed value by the tax rate and then divide the product by 1,000. The following is an example for an $80,000 residence with homestead exemption.

$80,000 (taxable value) X 11% (assessment rate) = $8,800 (gross assessed value); $8,800 (gross assessed value) - $1,000 (homestead exemption) = $7,800 (net assessed value); $7,800 (net assessed value) X 121.38 (tax rate) = 946,764; 946,764 ÷ 1,000 = $946.76 = $947.00 tax. The taxable, gross assessed, and net assessed values, exemption amount and tax rate are shown on the front of the statement.
